devolo announces fresh start with SOL Capital – proceedings supported by PLUTA attorney Dr Ruth Rigol as insolvency monitor

19 April 2024 · Cologne, Germany · Business Area: Insolvency Administration

Aachen-based network solutions specialist devolo has safeguarded its future by successfully concluding the process of finding an investor. With retroactive effect from 1 April 2024, Austrian financial investor SOL Capital has acquired significant parts of the operating business by way of an asset deal. devolo, a renowned industry leader, is widely known and well respected on account of its numerous innovations in the IT market. The purchase agreement was signed on 17 April 2024 and executed immediately thereafter.

The creditors' committee has approved the asset deal. This means that an investor solution has been found in just under four months in the debtor-in-possession restructuring proceedings supervised by attorney Dr Ruth Rigol from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH. The newly founded devolo solutions GmbH will be integrated into SOL Capital's financially strong private equity structure involving institutional investors such as the European Investment Fund.

Support for the internationally oriented M&A transaction was provided by management consultancy Wieselhuber &

Strong partnership for future projects devolo took the right step towards ensuring its future viability in December 2023 by entering debtor-in-possession restructuring proceedings. Its declared goal was to establish a sustainable and long-term partnership with a strong investor. "The discussions with SOL Capital were constructive and purposeful from the outset. We are therefore delighted that we can announce the start of our cooperation today and set a new milestone in devolo's history. With SOL Capital on board, we have gained a partner with many years of experience and the expertise needed to further develop devolo and chart a course for a successful future," said Mr Heiko Harbers, general manager of devolo solutions GmbH.

Change needed to achieve growth targets

Key optimisation measures have already been implemented in recent months. In particular, the value creation concept has been adapted to take account of changed market conditions. Dr Paul Niederkofler, senior partner and managing director of SOL Capital, explained, "With our strategic investment, we want to consolidate and continuously build on devolo's positioning in the fast-growing digital market. We will work together to drive forward our national and international expansion plans and invest sustainably in product and technology development as well as strengthening the brand. We are delighted to be able to contribute our expertise to this innovative company."

Successful M&A process

While the W&P team under Mr Jan Ehlert as project manager worked hard on reaching out to selected investors in Germany and further afield, the AMBG team under Mr Daniel Mann acted at the business management level, helping the debtor-in-possession management team to keep the company operating. The combined negotiations reached a successful conclusion due to the legal expertise of Dr Carl Höfer from OPPENLÄNDER as well. Prior to this, Mr Sven Luckert (OPPENLÄNDER) assisted with the restructuring under labour law.

Acting in her capacity as insolvency monitor, attorney Dr Ruth Rigol from PLUTA steered the exchange of information and process of coordination with the devolo creditors' committee, which carefully reviewed the various options for finalising the insolvency plan. Attorney Dr Sebastian Braun (Reinhart Kober Großkinsky Braun Rechtsanwälte PartGmbB) acted as legal advisor on matters specific to insolvency. "The best possible restructuring solution has been found for all parties to the
