Finow Automotive starts to restructure as a debtor in possession

12 May 2022 · Berlin · Business Area: Insolvency Administration

- PLUTA attorney Sebastian Laboga appointed as provisional insolvency monitor
- Business to remain operational during proceedings
- Investors have already expressed interest

The Local Court of Frankfurt/Oder accepted Finow Automotive GmbH's application for debtor-in-possession insolvency proceedings on 9 May 2022. With the help of law firm GÖRG, which specialises in insolvency cases, and tax consultancy WAYES, Finow will now try to restructure its business operations and save as many of the 180 jobs as possible. Attorney Mr Sebastian Laboga from the Berlin branch office of PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has been appointed provisional insolvency monitor.

Finow Automotive is a specialist in the development, production and processing of raw products for the automotive industry and other sectors. The company, headquartered in Eberswalde, has experienced considerable economic difficulties in recent months as a result of the coronavirus pandemic and the major changes in the automotive supplier market and logistics sector.
