PLUTA attorney Dr Wehner seeks investor for furniture component supplier LignoSmart

27 June 2024 · Lübbecke, Germany · Business
Area: Insolvency Administration

LignoSmart Holztechnik GmbH based in Lübbecke has filed for insolvency due to liquidity problems. Following this, on 21 June 2024, the Local Court of Bielefeld ordered provisional insolvency proceedings and appointed Dr André Wehner from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH as provisional administrator. He is now looking for an investor that will make the furniture component supplier fit for the future.

The furniture industry has been in a difficult situation for some time, which has led to a decline in orders for LignoSmart. The business is also feeling the effects of increased wood, transport and energy prices, while the shortage of skilled workers is another major challenge. Several employees in one department are on long-term sickness leave and it is proving very difficult to find qualified staff. The company currently employs eight people. Their salaries are guaranteed for a period of three months thanks to specific substitute benefits provided under German insolvency law.

Restructuring expert Dr Wehner from PLUTA said, "The company is continuing to operate. The discussions with business partners have been very constructive. However,
