Press release Insolvency

PLUTA attorney Fritz Zanker sells Allgaier site in Uhingen

16 November 2026

In the insolvency proceedings for Allgaier Werke GmbH, insolvency administrator Mr Fritz Zanker from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has sold all assets of value.

The final major transaction in the proceedings was completed last week with the sale of the company site at the former headquarters of automotive supplier Allgaier. The insolvency administrator sold the properties of all five plants in Uhingen to a regional investor. Plants II to VI were sold via Fachpartner Gewerbe-Immobilien GmbH (fgi), a joint subsidiary of the banks Kreissparkasse Göppingen and Sparkasse Ulm, under the lead management of Mr Marcus Ihrig.

The site encompasses approximately 120,000 m² of land and some 85,000 m² of building space, making this project one of the most important development sites in the district of Göppingen. The land is set to be redeveloped as a business park. The handover will take place on 1 January 2027. Fachpartner Gewerbe-Immobilien GmbH will assist the buyer with leasing the site.

PLUTA attorney Mr Fritz Zanker said, "With the transaction for this site, we have reached the final major milestone in the proceedings and been able to conclude the sale within one year, as planned. The excellent cooperation between all involved has been crucial to this successful outcome." Throughout 2026, the insolvency administrator had already sold all of the plants' machinery and equipment by private treaty and through an online insolvency auction.

International automotive supplier Allgaier, a long-standing industrial company founded in 1906, was an integral part of the regional economy for decades. As no investor was willing to acquire the business and keep it operating, the focus in recent months has been on selling the landmark industrial site.

"We are delighted with the successful sale. We have worked closely with the insolvency administrator, the creditors and the city administration in recent months to find a viable new use for the site," said Mr Marcus Ihrig, authorised signatory at fgi.

Further sales

Back in 2024, insolvency administrator Mr Fritz Zanker sold the Mexican subsidiary of Allgaier Werke GmbH, with approximately 500 employees, to an Italian investor. Unlike the holding company, the Mexican business was not involved in insolvency proceedings. The insolvency administrator also sold other interests in companies involved in special-purpose machinery manufacturing in Sweden, Spain and Austria.

Insolvency administrator Mr Fritz Zanker had already sold the Plant I site in Uhingen, approximately 500 metres away, in 2023. That property transaction took place as part of the sale of the business operations of Allgaier Process Technology GmbH at that time, which was handled by insolvency administrator Mr Michael Wahl.

Attorney Mr Christian Heim also sold Mogensen GmbH & Co. KG in Schleswig-Holstein in 2023, while attorney Mr Heinz-Joachim Hombach sold Allgaier Sachsen GmbH in Oelsnitz in 2024. Mr Michael Pluta is the insolvency administrator for Allgaier Automotive GmbH, the largest company in the group.

PLUTA team

Fritz Zanker

Press contact
Patrick Sutter
relatio PR
+49 89 210 257-22
presse@pluta.net

Press release Insolvency

About PLUTA
PLUTA helps companies through legally and commercially demanding situations. We support companies at every stage of their lifecycle – in transactions and restructuring, and by turning the business around and keeping it running through a crisis or insolvency. Where needed, PLUTA's restructuring specialists also step into management roles. PLUTA has grown steadily since it was founded in 1982 and today employs over 600 people in Germany, Spain and Italy. More than 300 commercial specialists, business economists, lawyers, business law specialists, tax consultants, public auditors, sworn auditors, economists, banking specialists, accountants, engineers and insolvency administration specialists – many of them with more than one qualification – deliver solutions that work in practice and make commercial sense. PLUTA is one of Germany's leading restructuring firms, as rankings and awards from WirtschaftsWoche, Focus, Handelsblatt, brand eins, INDat, JUVE, The Legal 500 and Lexology Index confirm. Further information at www.pluta.net.

Press contact
Patrick Sutter
relatio PR
+49 89 210 257-22
presse@pluta.net