PLUTA restructuring expert Dr Kaufmann said, “We have found a well-known investor, which is the best possible solution for all involved. I would especially like to thank the employees, who pulled together with us over recent weeks. Such support is not always a given.” He added: “The coronavirus pandemic poses major challenges for the logistics industry as well – but this example shows that businesses offering high-quality services have a future.” Diedrich Meyer was especially attractive to the investor due to its logistics and transport experience in the area of coffee and related products.
