28 September 2017 · Munich, Germany · Business
Area: Insolvency Administration

The insolvency administrator Dr Martin Prager from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH is able to almost fully comply with the claims filed by the creditors of BenQ Mobile.

The final meeting in the proceedings for Mobile Abwicklungsgesellschaft mbH & Co. OHG (formerly: BenQ Mobile GmbH & Co. OHG) took place yesterday at Munich Local Court. Dr Prager explained, "The proceedings were very complex. Thanks to intensive negotiations with all the parties concerned, we were able to achieve a recovery rate of approximately 98%. This is an extremely good result for such large-scale proceedings, which, of course, makes us very happy. Our long years of effort have paid off."

At peak times, up to 50 PLUTA employees were active at different places in these international proceedings. Most recently, in addition to Dr Prager, the core team included the attorneys Mr Stephan Ammann and Mr Martin Jungclaus. Dr Prager's team had already been able to pay out an initial amount equal to a recovery rate of 35% to the creditors in spring 2009; the second interim payment was made in mid-2011. Roughly 80% of the claims have so far been settled.

"We were already able to make a first payment two years
