Press Release

With Lefaxx Jeans, Angels has found a new owner with the years of production experience and excellent market insight needed to ensure smooth operations across the entire supply chain and provide a reliable basis for quality, delivery reliability and product performance going forward. “We have already been working with Angels for decades and have always been impressed by the exceptional expertise in product and fit there. We are excited to put a smile on the faces of even more trade partners in the future with Angels’ superb jeans and trousers,” said Mr Vedat Dogan, owner of Lefaxx Jeans.

The takeover by Lefaxx Jeans is an important milestone in Angels GmbH’s history. The partnership marks a crucial step towards ensuring the brand’s continuous growth and further strengthening its innovative capacity and product quality. Having mainly focused on modernising the product and brand in recent times, Angels has succeeded in increasing sales from almost 30 million euros to just under 50 million euros in only a few years. UniCredit Bank GmbH, Munich, and VR Equitypartner GmbH, Frankfurt, will be providing long-term support to Angels as financing partners.

For Angels and its customers, the partnership means continuity at all levels: the contacts at the company’s headquarters in Nagold will remain the same, and the trusted relationships established with sales partners will be maintained. The experienced management team at Angels will still be on board and will bring the same degree of commitment to further building on the successful trajectory of recent years.
