PLUTA restructuring expert Christoph Chrobok achieves solution in DC Transporte GmbH proceedings

9 March 2026 · Bochum, Germany · Business
Area: Insolvency Administration

Attorney Mr Christoph Chrobok from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has found a restructuring solution in the DC Transporte GmbH insolvency proceedings. A competitor based in the southern Ruhr area has acquired the transport service provider's business by way of an asset deal. The buyer has kept on all 26 employees.

The PLUTA team had previously kept the business operating for around six weeks after the Local Court of Bochum ordered provisional insolvency administration for the company's assets on 15 January 2026. On 1 March 2026, the court opened regular proceedings and appointed Mr Christoph Chrobok as insolvency administrator.

DC Transporte GmbH with locations in Zülpich, Langenfeld and Gelsenkirchen was supplying meal kits for a customer in the food retail trade.

Best possible outcome

PLUTA attorney Mr Christoph Chrobok said, "The investor submitted a competitive offer that, in particular, included the retention of all jobs, which I am delighted about. We
