strong commitment. We are optimistic of achieving a solution for the wholesale bakery,” said Mr Willrodt. He is being supported in the PLUTA restructuring team by attorney Mr Mirko Möllen.

Supplier to numerous well-known customers

Backsinfonie based in Moosinning is a medium-sized business producing handmade baked goods without preservatives or additives. The bakery was founded in 2014. Its varied goods are made using raw materials sourced from local suppliers and produced in accordance with the EU Organic Production Regulation. The bakery's product range includes various farmhouse breads, ciabattas, rolls and more. The company operates a three-shift system.

In recent years, the bakery has become a reliable supplier to wholesale businesses who then sell on its goods to numerous companies, delicatessens, organic shops and restaurant chains. It has established a regular customer base, due in no small part to its artisan baking process and use of high-quality regional ingredients. PLUTA attorney Mr Möllen said, “We have already held good discussions with the business partners, who remain loyal to us. The business is therefore operating normally and continuing to supply customers as usual.”
