Restructuring expert Michael Pluta finds investor for automotive service provider ZSK

16 July 2021 · Ravensburg · Business Area: Insolvency Administration

Restructuring expert Mr Michael Pluta from PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has succeeded in finding an investor solution for ZSK GmbH. Following negotiations with several investors, a management buyout (MBO) has now been completed with the establishment of a new company, ZSK Automotive GmbH. A total of 20 jobs have been saved as a result. Insolvency administrator Mr Michael Pluta has been supported during the proceedings by Mr Stefan Warmuth, an attorney, business management expert and tax consultant.

Automotive service provider ZSK had to file for insolvency in late August 2020 due to liquidity problems. The company had been severely affected by the consequences of the coronavirus pandemic. On 1 November 2020, the insolvency proceedings were opened for the company's assets and Mr Michael Pluta was appointed insolvency administrator. The PLUTA restructuring team kept the business going for several months, and the important business in China was also retained. In addition, necessary restructuring measures were implemented and the company's cost structures were significantly improved in recent months.

Attorney Mr Michael Pluta said, "I am pleased that we have been able to find a good solution for ZSK despite the difficult situation and the effects of the coronavirus. The management
