Strategic realignment: management consultancy Achtzig20 GmbH starts debtor-in- possession proceedings

12 June 2024 · Munich, Germany · Business
Area: Restructuring

Achtzig20 GmbH has initiated debtor-in-possession restructuring proceedings with the aim of putting the management consultancy firm on a viable footing. Dr Maximilian Pluta and Mr Hans-Christian Källner, restructuring experts at PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH, are supporting the repositioning under the lead management of Mr Ivo-Meinert Willrodt. In early June, the Local Court of Ingolstadt ordered provisional debtor-in-possession management and appointed attorney Mr Marc-André Kuhne from law firm dkr kuhne dr. raith in Munich as provisional insolvency monitor. He is overseeing the proceedings and representing the interests of the creditors.

The business will continue to operate at all eight locations and all ongoing projects will be executed as usual. Customers can still get in touch with their normal points of contact. The some 200 employees have already been informed about the current situation. Their salaries are secure thanks to what are known as insolvency substitute benefits.

investing in the use of artificial intelligence in its specialist areas of software development and management consulting.

Managing director Mr Florian Holste said, "We have grown strongly in recent years and established ourselves as a leading provider of creative and innovative solutions. However, this growth has also brought with it challenges that will now be proactively tackled under the debtor-in-possession proceedings."

Over the coming weeks, the relevant parties will therefore draw up a restructuring concept designed to put the company on a viable footing. All internal processes will be reviewed and revenue positions analysed. Mr Holste added, "Our employees are our greatest asset. Their engagement is fundamental to our success. We are confident that we will overcome this challenge together."

In-court restructuring proceedings aimed at rescuing the company

Debtor-in-possession proceedings are in-court restructuring proceedings to rescue and rehabilitate financially distressed companies. The company concerned is allowed to manage the restructuring process itself, supervised by an insolvency monitor and supported by restructuring experts with relevant experience in this field.

"The company has good prospects of a successful restructuring. I will oversee the proceedings in the interests of the creditors over the coming months," said provisional insolvency monitor Mr Marc-André Kuhne. He
