Attorney Heinz-Joachim Hombach named new partner at PLUTA

23 January 2024

Attorney Mr Heinz-Joachim Hombach has been named partner at PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH effective 1 January of this year. The restructuring expert has many years of experience in turning around companies and is regularly appointed insolvency administrator by courts.

Mr Hombach is deputy branch manager in Leipzig and an authorised signatory for PLUTA's Leipzig and Chemnitz offices. His activities are focused on restructuring and turning around companies as part of regular and debtor-in-possession insolvency proceedings. He has professional experience in tourism, retail, the automotive industry and industrial production. Among other things, he is currently insolvency administrator for Oelsnitz-based company Allgaier Sachsen GmbH, which is part of the global Allgaier Group. The 46-year-old attorney also holds central functions at PLUTA: he is the company's data protection coordinator and supports the PLUTA IT development process as technical committee head.

Managing partner Mr Michael Pluta said, "Mr Heinz-Joachim Hombach has been with us for over 15 years. I have enjoyed a fruitful cooperation with him in numerous proceedings and hold him in very high regard, at both a professional and personal level. By making him a partner, we are also sending a clear signal that we intend to place an even greater focus on data protection and IT in our
