Change of generation at the PLUTA branch offices in Düsseldorf and Aachen

18 January 2022 · Düsseldorf/Aachen

Mr Michael Bremen has passed the baton on to the next generation. At the beginning of 2022, he handed over the reins of PLUTA's Düsseldorf and Aachen branch offices to attorneys Mr Christoph Chrobok and Dr Uwe Paul.

"This change of generation is a perfect opportunity for our young but nevertheless very experienced colleagues Dr Uwe Paul and Mr Christoph Chrobok. They are the ideal persons to head our branch offices in Düsseldorf and Aachen," said attorney Mr Michael Bremen, explaining his decision.

Attorney Mr Christoph Chrobok has headed the PLUTA branch office in Osnabrück for three years, together with Mr Stefan Meyer. His activities are focused on restructuring and turning around companies. In addition, he is regularly appointed insolvency administrator by the local courts of Düsseldorf, Essen and Bochum.

Dr Uwe Paul, an attorney for general law and a specialist attorney for tax law, is active in PLUTA's insolvency administration and legal consulting business areas and has written numerous publications on insolvency plan law and insolvency tax law. Dr Paul is regularly appointed insolvency administrator by the local courts of Düsseldorf, Mönchengladbach, Duisburg and Aachen.
