Dr Karl-Friedrich Gulbins and Mr Stefan Warmuth named new partners at PLUTA

9 June 2022 · Ulm

PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH has announced two new partners: attorneys Dr Karl-Friedrich Gulbins and Mr Stefan Warmuth.

Founder and managing director Mr Michael Pluta commented on the development, "I am delighted to welcome another two experienced and long-standing colleagues to our partner ranks, where they will be able to bring their expertise to bear."

Mr Stefan Warmuth, an attorney, business management expert and tax consultant specialising in debtor-in-possession proceedings and restructuring, heads the company's tax law department in Ulm. Amongst other things, he acts as managing director or general agent in companies, assuming responsibility for financial and structural reorganisation activities. He also draws up restructuring concepts and integrated business plans.

Mr Warmuth has already contributed his expertise in a large number of prominent debtor-in-possession proceedings, such as those of packaging company HÖHN and cloud service provider scanplus. He is currently in the process of creating and implementing a restructuring concept for the Burnus Group, which manufactures personal care products and detergents.

Corporate News

Attorney Dr Gulbins heads the labour law department at PLUTA and specialises in providing support in the area of collective labour law and negotiating reconciliation of interests agreements, social plans and collective agreements for restructuring processes. He advises companies within and outside of insolvency proceedings and has successfully negotiated solutions with works councils and trade unions on many occasions. Dr Gulbins continues to lecture on transformation law at the University of Nürtingen-Geislingen.

The labour attorney most recently supported the proceedings of automotive supplier Emil Bucher and was part of the PLUTA team for GHBV, the personnel service provider for the twin ports of Bremen/Bremerhaven, which restructured under debtor-in-possession proceedings and negotiated a social plan with employees.
