Ilkin Bananyarli becomes partner at PLUTA

25 September 2019 · Ulm/Stuttgart

Stuttgart-based attorney Mr Ilkin Bananyarli has been named partner at PLUTA Rechtsanwalts GmbH. The restructuring expert has many years of experience in restructuring and preserving companies and is regularly appointed insolvency administrator by regional courts.

Mr Bananyarli has managed numerous insolvency proceedings, including those of the Häussler real estate group. In 2018, he sold the Gewa Tower in Fellbach, near Stuttgart, to the well-known CG Group. He is currently the administrator in a number of insolvency proceedings, such as for the Rexer Group bus companies.

The 41-year-old attorney studied law at the University of Regensburg, where he also completed his traineeship. He has been working for PLUTA in Stuttgart as a qualified attorney since 2005, and has also specialised in insolvency law since 2011. Mr Bananyarli is a member of INSOL Europe, the German Bar Association (DAV, Young Attorneys' Forum) and the German Association of Insolvency Administrators (VID).

Founder and Managing Director Mr Michael Pluta said, "Mr Ilkin Bananyarli has already completed numerous complex proceedings with his team. At PLUTA, we have now added another young, but still experienced, attorney to our partner ranks who will be the ideal complement to our existing team."
