Nikolaus Röver joins PLUTA to strengthen M&A transaction business

1 March 2024 · Munich, Germany

Attorney Mr Nikolaus Röver was appointed partner at PLUTA Management GmbH on 1 March 2024. The experienced M&A and restructuring expert will be responsible for expanding the company's M&A transaction services.

With this new addition to its ranks, PLUTA is further pursuing its growth strategy and positioning itself as a full-service provider in the transaction business. The experts at PLUTA Management GmbH offer every service associated with M&A deals. This includes advising companies on matters of law, finance and tax as well as supporting them in their search for investors. PLUTA advises both buyers and sellers of businesses.

Mr Nikolaus Röver has many years of experience in advising national and international clients on corporate acquisitions, sales and restructurings. During his successful professional career, he has been involved in over 80 M&A transactions and taken on more than 50 advisory mandates to date. He has acted as chief restructuring officer (CRO) in many engagements over the years, and supported the restructurings of Blaupunkt, Überkinger Mineralbrunnen, Poschmann Plastics, ATP Autoteile GmbH and more. include TV manufacturer Metz, Gehrlicher Solar and publisher Langenscheidt.

The 55-year-old began his career in 1997 as an attorney with an international auditing company in London and later worked at a renowned Heidelberg law firm specialising in insolvency administration. He subsequently gained extensive experience in restructuring consulting at KPMG and Droege & Comp. As managing partner and co-head of the Distressed M&A and Restructuring division of investment bank Acxit Capital Partners (now part of NYSE-listed investment bank Stifel Financial Corp.), he was responsible for numerous national and international M&A deals over many years.

Managing director Dr Maximilian Pluta said, "By welcoming Mr Nikolaus Röver, we are gaining a proven expert in distressed M&A. With his many years of experience and outstanding networks, we intend to further expand this business and continue to pursue our growth strategy going forward. We have known each other for several years. He will be an excellent fit for us, both professionally and personally."

Mr Nikolaus Röver said, "With its comprehensive range of services, PLUTA is strategically superbly positioned to successfully manage complex restructuring work and transactions, including where large enterprises are involved. I am looking forward to this opportunity to take charge of expanding the M&A transaction business and to working together with my colleagues at PLUTA."
