PLUTA's Munich branch to relocate

28 March 2025 · Munich, Germany

PLUTA's Munich branch will relocate to Radlkofenstraße 2 in early April 2025. The modern premises situated centrally near the Theresienwiese will provide the ideal work environment. The telephone and fax numbers will remain the same, along with the usual contacts.

PLUTA celebrates 25 years in Munich

In addition to the relocation, the Munich branch is also celebrating its 25th anniversary. It has seen continuous developments since its official opening in spring 2000. Originally located in the outskirts of Munich, the team already moved to Barthstraße 16 back in 2002. Now it is set to relocate to modern office premises.

The Munich team has chalked up numerous successes over the years, including many restructurings of medium-sized businesses. Most recently, it succeeded in achieving an insolvency plan solution for the MARO housing cooperative. It is currently involved in a number of high-profile proceedings, including those of solar technology company Sono Motors, insurer FWU, management consultancy Achtzig20, communications agency Olando, fashion house Ted Baker and online retailer windeln.de SE.

The branch employees offer a full range of services, from insolvency administration and legal consulting through to restructuring. PLUTA Management GmbH under managing director Dr Maximilian Pluta has its headquarters in
